Three Western Horses Score at Expense of Eastern Rivals--- The Larchmont Cruise Ends

ELENA FIRST IN PORT AT FINISH OF CRUISE

Leads Larchmont Squadron to New London, Taking Rear Commodore's Prize.

THROUGH FLEET

Catching New Wind Before Her Rivals, She Gains Headway and Passes Them All.

New London, Conn.. Aug. 5.—The tarchmont Yacht Club fleet sailed into arbor here this afternoon after a most accessful run from Morris Cove. The Elena led the fleet and won the rear commodore's prize for the first division of schooners. In the second division the winner was the Stamford schooner Eleman. The Dorello won in the first division of sloops and the Stronger in the second division. The Dorello outsailed the Medora all the way. The Stranger took a good lead when near Faulkner's island, where Josephine was becalmed. Later Josephine overhauled the Stranger, but the latter won by 24 seconds.

The fleet disbanded at 6 o'clock and the sachts joined the New York Yacht Club squadron.

when Commodore Smithers made the har-her signal and it held until some time after the start. The Christina established the starting line off the eastern break-water and at 9 o'clock the warning sounded. The Stranger was water and at 9 o'clock the warning sounded. The Stranger was first away, with the Windward in close company and Joyant astern. The Rowdy was next and then Josephine, which had joined the steet during the night.

The Josephine soon led the fleet and as they passed Branford beacon was slightly shead of the Stranger and Joyant. The Elena half an hour after the start was shead of the Stranger and Joyant. The Riena half an hour after the start was half a mile ahead of the Irolita, and that vacht led the Muriel by the same distance. About 10 o'clock the yachts were almost becalmed. The southerly was nearing and booms were gybed to port ready to take advantage of it. The Elena and Muriel got the change of wind before the Irolita and by 10:30 o'clock the Elena had sailed through the fleet and was the leading yacht. She finished at 2:19:51. She had taken a little less than five hours to sail the thirty-eight and a half miles. The summaries: The summaries:

EAST AGAIN LOSES IN STRUGGLE WITH WEST

Hawthorn, Little Nephew and Casuarina Show Way to Best Local Horses.

EARLY ROSE SLOW TO BEGIN

Alex Smith Cochrane's Filly Draws Outside Position and Can't Get Up.

Saratoga, Aug. 5.—The anticipated triumph of Western thoroughbreds was made more complete this afternoon when, in addition to winning the Spinaway Stakes for two year old fillies with J. N. Camden's Casuarina the Westerners took the two handicaps on the card, in both of which their representatives conceded weight and a good beating to the best that the East could pit against them. Numerically it was an even break, but in quality the West was supreme, the three races won by Eastern turfmen being made up of small fields in which class was lacking and in two of which the West had no representative.

had no representative.

The severest blow of all came in the Spinaway, where for once the Metropolitan spinaway, where for once the Metropolitan crowd believed they had a champion worthy of the name in Alex Smith Cochran's Early Rose. Racing luck as well as fleetness was with the West in this event, for Early Rose, which was made favorite, drew next to the outside position in the large field of eleven. Had Early Rose possessed the early speed of Casuarina there would at least have been a fighting finish between these two splendid fillies, but the alertness of Casuarina in fillies, but the alertness of Casuarina in taking the track and gaining the rail was fatal to the chances of the favorite.

The Western triumphs began in the first event, a handicap for two-year-olds, in which R. F. Carman's Surprising was sent out to meet more of the Western youngsters, including Little Nephew. Nickyoungsters, including Little Nephew. Nick-laus was more alert at the post with Car-man's colt than he was yesterday and Sur-prising broke just behind Roamer, which was first away from the barrier. But out from the bunch shot Little Nephew and quickly overhauled the pair; taking the lead in the first hundred yards and stretching his advantage to three lengths at the and of the first quarter. Surprisat the end of the first quarter Surpris-ing was in second place to the stretch turn, where Roamer shaved the rail and gained enough ground to make sure of beating Surprising and forcing Little Nephew to attend to his business to win by a length.

Little Nephew and Casuarina having taken care of the two-year-olds it re-mained for Hawthorn to show that the Western three-year-olds also outclassed the Easterners, but it was unfortunate that Rock View, Mr. Belmont's champion, was not entered to give battle. Hawthorn was top weight in the handicap of six furlongs and the chief opposition was expected from H. C. Hallenbeck's Hobnob. Genesta was away first but was crowded back by Hawthorn, which was quickly joined by Hobnob. With a clear path in the backstretch Musgrave cut across Hawthorn and caused him to pull up. Hawthorn lost about three lengths by this, but Loftus bided his time and going around the turn rushed into the lead. He had three lengths advantage in the stretch, but the lightly weighted Genesta was in hot pursuit and suffered defeat by only half a length. Star Gaze appropriately dropped from the clouds to take third place two lengths further back.

The crowd was much larger than yes terday and the only real setback for the talent was when Jawbone, a 1 to 3 favorite, in the fifth race, was bowled over by Bob R. The only other non-favorite to win was Casuarina, which was well Ellsworth R. Dr. g. (Proster). 1 2 1

NOTES OF THE THOROUGHBREDS.

DURAS HAS BETTER POSITION. djourned Match With Black Large ly in His Favor. O. S. Duras of Prague, Bohemian ches-champion, played another important game champion, played another important game in the masters' tournament of the Rice Chess Club yesterday when he encountered Roy T. Black, former champion of the Brooklyn Chess Club. After thirty-seven moves, the game was adjourned, but Duras had the advantage of a pawn and the better position, so that it is likely the Bohemian master will score the game soon after resumption.

Black selected the Ruy Lopez, queens being exchanged at an early stage. Then came a keen struggle for position between the minor pieces and pawns, inasmuch as the rooks were shortly exchanged. Duras was left with two bishops against a knight and bishop, giving him a slight advantage. It resulted in his winning a pawn on the thirty-third move. In accomplishing the shortest him to be was obliged to plishing this, however, he was obliged to trade one of his bishops for a knight, leaving on the board bishops commanding squares of opposite color.

take his place and win two more. At the end of the fifth heat Eilsworth R. was declared winner, although the honors un-doubtedly would have gone to a little bay mare called Rosebud McKinney if one more heat had been allowed. She won the final two in easy fashion and might have won the race but for her erratic perform-more earlier in the day.

There was a collision in the 2:30 trot that looked as though it were going to result seriously for at least two of the contestants. In making the final turn into the homestretch Grant McGregor was forced into the force Rush B and forced into the fence. Rush B. and Francis Milrol collided with him and Grant and Rush B. circled the track on a run before their drivers could control top weight in the handicap of six furlongs and the chief opposition was expected accident was unavoidable and the horses from H. Johnston then put on full speed and captured three in a row, and with them the set and match. He directed his attack throughout this set on Inman's backhand. Inman was weak on overhead work and was a trifle wild, while Johnston was steadier and netted less frequently. The winner made no service aces, twelve placements, seven outs, seven nets and two double faults. Inman had to his credit one service ace, seven placements, eleven outs, six nets and five double faults. These gave a point total of 34 to 24.
